Spragg to be spotlighted on NJTV

EGG HARBOR CITY – The Charles L. Spragg School will be featured on the NJTV program “Classroom Close-Up, NJ,” which is scheduled to air Dec. 23 and 29, Jan. 27 and Feb. 2 on NJTV Channel 23.

A production crew visited a second- and third-grade classroom in September to tape a segment titled “PMI: Progressive Mathematics Initiative.” The math curriculum, developed by the nonprofit NJ Center for Teaching and Learning, is designed for k-12 mathematics instruction and is said to support high levels of student achievement in mathematics.

The show will feature interviews with Principal Adrienne Shulby, third-grade teacher Heather Crosson, second-grade teacher Tara Macchione, and Melissa Axelsson, program manager of mathematics for the NJCTL concerning PMI.

Chamber seeks nominations for business of the year

EGG HARBOR CITY – The Greater Egg Harbor City Chamber of Commerce is seeking nominations for its annual business of the year award.

A committee of chamber members will review nomination letters to select the recipient based on the business’ contributions toward commercial growth and achievement, innovation, creativity and community involvement. The award will be presented at the chamber’s installation of officers and business of the year dinner planned for January 2013.

Residents or interested parties are invited to send a letter detailing their nomination and the reasons why the nominee should receive the award. Email nominations to info@greatereggchamber.com or mail to PO Box 129, Egg Harbor City, NJ 08215 by Monday, Dec. 31.
